On Tuesday, August 7, 2007, at approximately 3:50 p.m., two black males dressed in hoods and armed with handguns entered the Supercuts hair salon and forced staff and employees into a back room. After gaining entry into the safe and removing an undisclosed amount of cash, they fled on foot toward the Target store, where an awaiting vehicle met them and fled southbound on Admiral Callaghan Lane.

Detectives developed a description of the suspect vehicle from witness information. After tracing an obtained license plate, Detectives began surveillance of a residence in Hercules. They eventually stopped the involved vehicle in the city of Pinole on August 8th and arrested a 17 year-old suspect from Hercules who is suspected to be the driver of the getaway vehicle. Clothing and firearms connected to the crime were found inside the vehicle and collected as evidence.

Detectives were also able to determine that a 17 year-old female who is employed at the Supercuts business was responsible for masterminding the planned robbery; she has been arrested and booked. Additionally, search warrants were served at the residence in Hercules and cash taken from the robbery was recovered.

A third adult suspect has been identified and detectives are working to locate him. At this time, no information on his identity has been released.
